TrueZONE® Bypass

Finally there's a bypass zoning damper that doesn't require balancing those pesky weights. The new Resideo TrueZONE Bypass damper dramatically cuts installation time by replacing the old weight system with a simple dial. No more hassles. No more frustration. Just an easy installation and year-round performance without the need for adjustments. It's the latest in the complete lineup of Resideo TrueZONE solutions that make zoning easier than ever.

BYPASS HASSLE

The days of spending one to two hours installing a zoning bypass damper are gone. With the new TrueZONE Bypass damper from Resideo, you get an out of the box solution with little configuration needed. The TrueZONE Bypass replaces the tedious weight system with a simple, preset dial that needs little or no adjustment. Zoning just got a whole lot simpler.

Bypass Callbacks

Bypass dampers are required in nearly all zoning installations to relieve pressure. Installing them used to require time-consuming weight balancing, but the TrueZONE Bypass has sent the weight system packing:

- Eliminates installation hassles
- Simple dial for setting when the system starts to bypass
- Spend less time on every zoning job
- Exclusive Resideo technology

Bypass Labor

The timesaving dial is just one of many TrueZONE Bypass innovations:

- Installs at any orientation at any angle
- Allows more airflow than typical weighted models, so you can install a smaller size
- Can handle all of the airflow needs of today's zoning systems to provide constant pressure relief regardless of the blower speed
- Designed for easy flex-duct installation
- Profitable — saves you upfront time through the fast installation and follow-up time by eliminating the callbacks associated with

BYPASS RISK = MORE PROFITS PER JOB
